THE WEST MILL
WEDDING VENUE

A Wedding Day That Flows Effortlessly

From the excitement of the morning preparations to the final song of the night, every part of your wedding day unfolds naturally at The West Mill. With four beautifully designed floors dedicated to celebrating, dining and dancing, the experience feels seamless, relaxed and completely unforgettable.

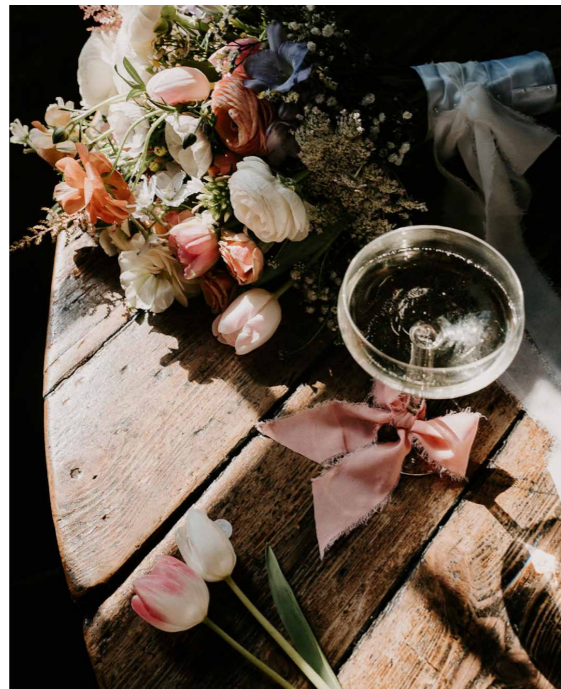

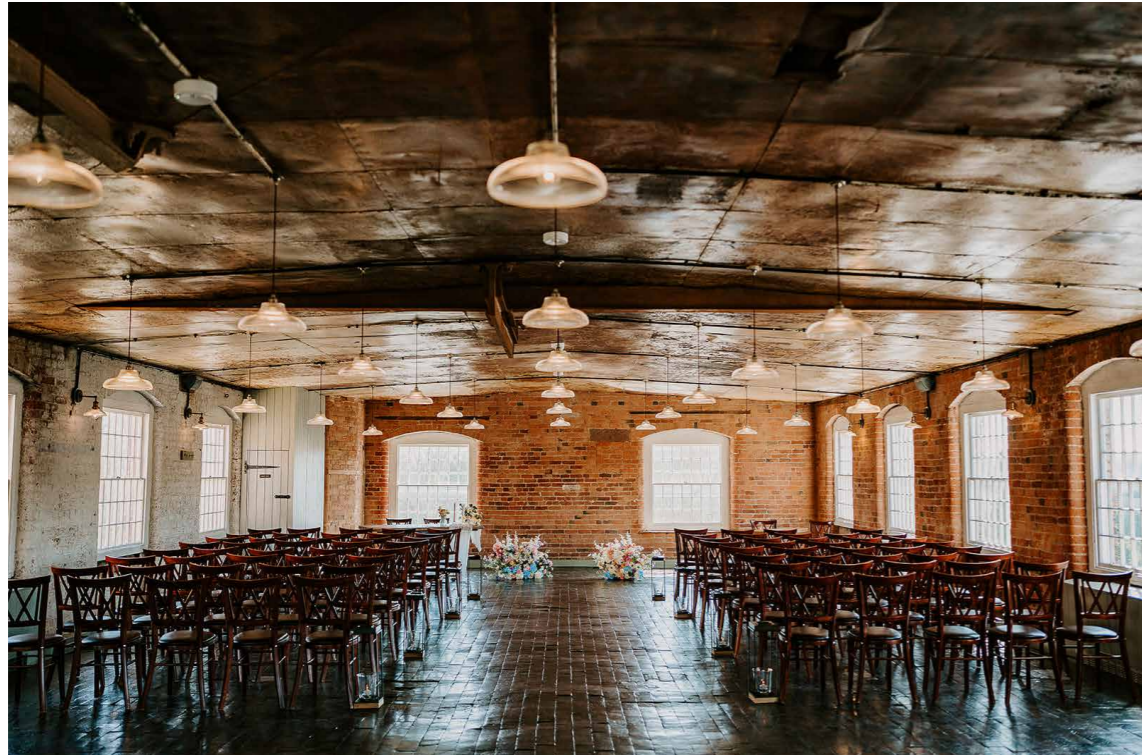

“The venue is stunning, the food to die for and the team made sure absolutely everything went without a hitch.”

- SOPHIE & JAKE

From First Look to Walking Down The Aisle

Located on the same floor as The Cotton Quarter, The Dressing Room offers a calm, beautifully light-filled space to spend the morning with your closest people before the celebrations begin. With huge industrial windows flooding the room with natural light, it's the perfect setting for hair, makeup, and those unforgettable getting ready moments.

Say "I Do" In The Cotton Quarter

Flooded with natural light from huge Georgian windows, The Cotton Quarter combines exposed brick, barrel vaulted ceilings and original industrial character to create one of Derbyshire's most iconic ceremony spaces. Romantic, dramatic and effortlessly stylish, it's a setting your guests will never forget.

Cocktails By The River

After the ceremony, celebrations continue in the riverside gardens as you are welcomed through a confetti tunnel. Guests can enjoy your no corkage drinks and canapés overlooking the River Derwent, while the atmosphere shifts from emotional to celebratory. Pair relaxed vibes with ambient music for the ultimate party starting drinks reception.

Candlelight & Conversation

The Breakfast Floor brings everyone together for one of the most memorable parts of the day. Round or trestle tables, incredible food and warm industrial interiors create an atmosphere that feels intimate, stylish and filled with love as daylight fades into evening.

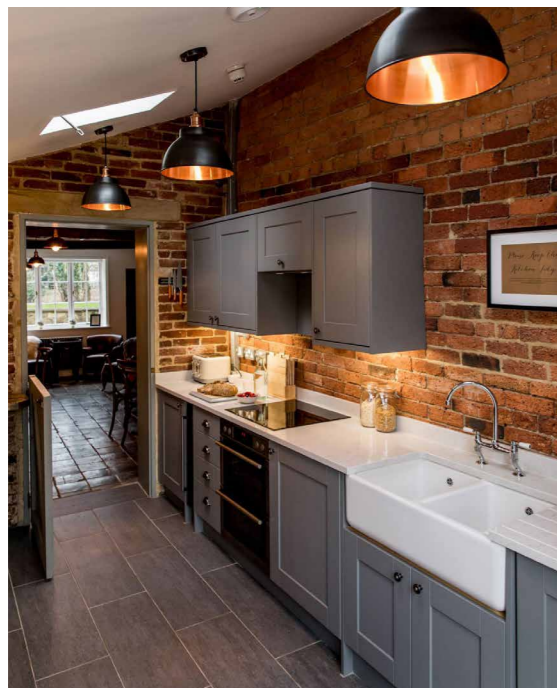

When The Lights Go Down

As the evening begins, the celebration moves into The Spinning Room, a space designed for unforgettable parties. With room for live music, packed dancefloors and late night cocktails, the energy shifts effortlessly from elegant dining to full celebration. Our fully stocked bar is situated right next to the dance floor to keep your guests in one space all night long.

“The West Mill went beyond our expectations. We particularly loved the different floors for each part of the day, which made everything seamless. The industrial aesthetic of the building wowed our guests and made for beautiful photographs.”

- MARIA & SCOTT

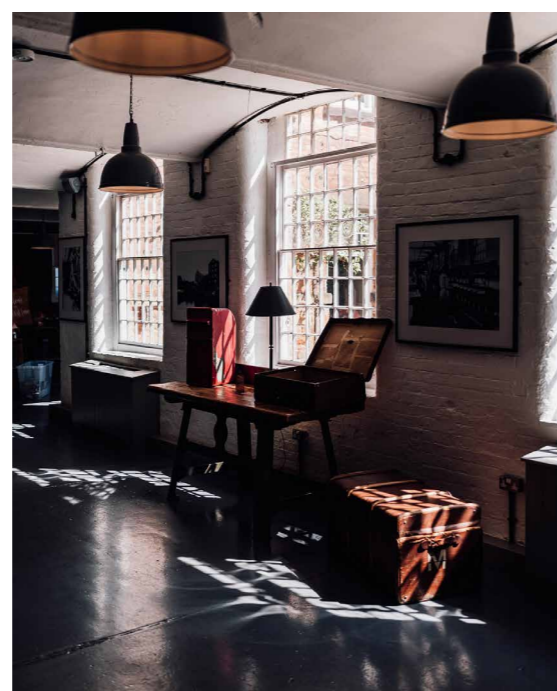

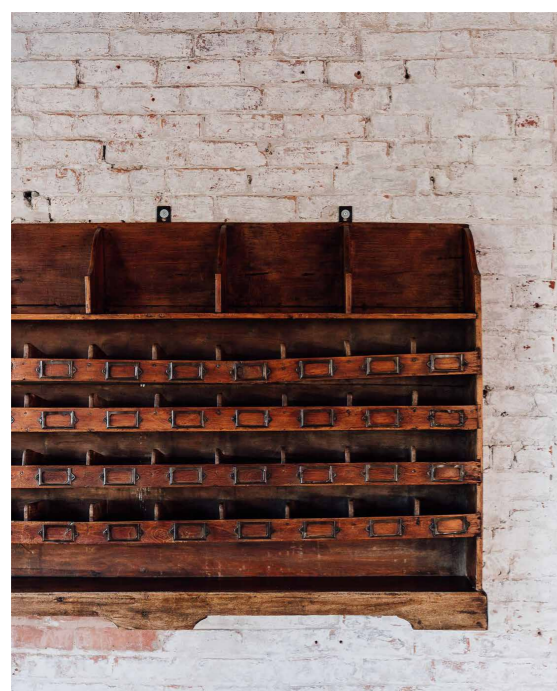

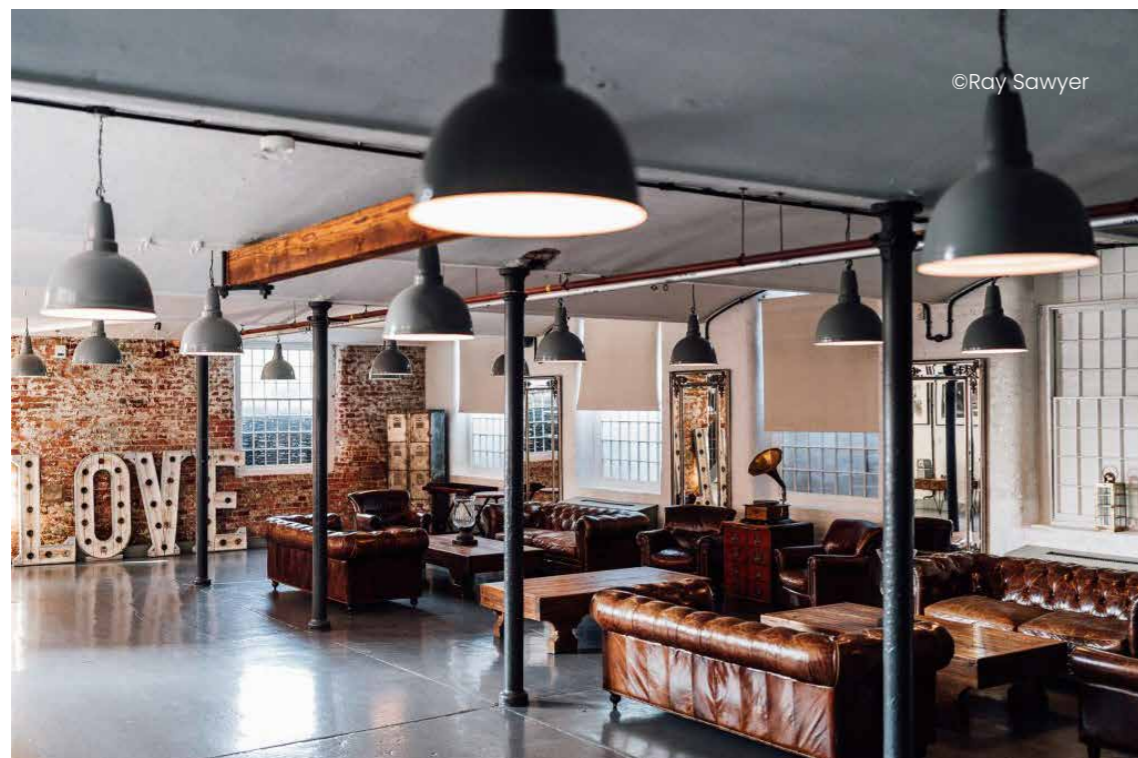

The Celebration Continues
